FROM YOUR PARISH PRIEST

This week whilst I was visiting the year 6 children in St Mary's school, I was subjected to a quick fire round of questioning from both classes. I must say, I was very impressed by the thoughtfulness and the reflective nature of many of their questions and how they displayed not only a depth of knowledge but also a hunger for truth and to learn more about their faith. One question that impressed me particularly was "Father, which do you think is the most important virtue that Our Lady shows us?" – "Humility" was my answer and I think, going back to what I said a few weeks ago about Our Lady helping us to prepare for Christmas with patience, humility is another essential quality that we need to cultivate in order to celebrate Christmas properly.

We need to remember, that the Lord's incarnation itself, is one giant act of humility. The fact that the great God who made both heaven and earth and who even now, sustains all things in being, should humble Himself to be born as a baby in a dirty feeding trough in a poor backwater of the middle east, should tell us something about the importance of this virtue. Humility is at the heart of what it is to celebrate Christmas and is not an optional extra.

There is a severe lack of humility in the world today. We are told constantly by the media about the need for self-help, self-confidence and self-promotion. The desire to be famous and influential is now seen as the highest possible good. Attention is to be sought at any cost - just look at the Harry and Meghan saga! "The world must revolve around me or I'm doing something wrong."

As we well know, God's thoughts are not our thoughts and His ways are not our ways and as usual, the reign of the Kingdom of God is brought about by tipping the normal order of things on its head. The gentle cry of the new born Son of God was not heard by the powerful, it was missed by Emperor, the Governor and the King. The great ones of the world were deaf to his coming - the only two groups who responded to the Lord were the shepherds, who know that they know nothing, and the wise men, who know that they do not know everything... the very simple and the very learned. Never those who think that they know it all.

Humility is essential if we are to attain salvation. Without it, we will be unable to see the face of God, who humbled Himself to walk among us in such a world as this. Only the humble of heart saw the true face of God on that first Christmas night. Kings and priests were not queuing outside the cave where he was born in order to adore him – only those with the eyes to see. The cave is down inside the earth and all who wish to come into His presence must bend, they must stoop and bend low in order to enter. Those who are too proud to stoop miss the sight of the divine. As Archbishop Fulton Sheen once wrote "Those, however, who are willing to risk bending their egos to go into that cave, find that they are not in a cave at all; but they are in a universe where sits a babe on His mother's lap, the babe who made the world."

Patience is important this Advent, but so too is humility. For it is only when we are humble, that we are worthy to enter and see the face of God.

God bless you all.
